

Watercolors Everywhere!

The Illinois Watercolor Society had their exhibition at the High Risk Gallery in the month of February. The show featured over 20 artists from the society in various styles. It was well received by the community and gave great exposure to the art of watercolors. For more information about the society log on to illinoiswatercolorsociety.org

What you didn't know about Mosaics

The gallery hosted the National show of the Society of American Mosaic Artists throughout the month of March. It featured their juried show as well as their travelling show "Pieces of Life" that will tour the country. The exhibition was very informative and gave our guests insight about mosaics.
